

2007 - THE YEAR OF THE BOAR

By Brenda Black

The Year of the Boar began on February 18, 2007. After the intense year of the Dog in 2006, the Boar brings in more peace and harmony. Countries will take better care of their citizens and there may be a global conference that brings an end to an intense war. There is a focus on home improvements and entertainment – in fact dieters may have to work harder at shedding those unwanted pounds. Marriage counselors may be busier than ever before as many couples seek help in bringing intimacy back into their relationships.

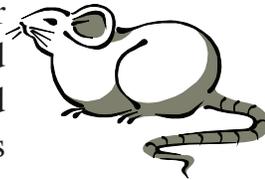

Following are predictions for the 12 signs of the Chinese Zodiac:

Rat

(1924, 1936, 1948, 1960, 1972, 1984, 1996)

A year of rest and recuperation from last year's harsh events. Try to conserve your energy for next year when you begin your new 12-year cycle of good fortune. There is slow and steady progress in business and investments. You may be tempted to jump right in to a new love relationship, but try to get to know the person before you give your heart away.

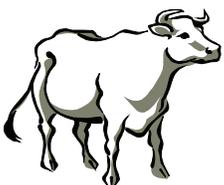

(Cameron Diaz & Sean Penn)

Ox

(1925, 1937, 1949, 1961, 1973, 1985, 1997)

A year of happiness and contentment. There is a lot of activity at home and work. Several new important business contacts will open new doors for you. Someone you dated on and off in 2006 could turn out to be your true love. Keep on saving and investing and you will have good financial news at the end of the year.

(Tyra Banks and George Clooney)

Tiger

(1926, 1938, 1950, 1962, 1974, 1986, 1998)
