CAROLYN FORD

Friday: THE HUMAN DESIGN SYSTEM: A REVOLUTIONARY APPROACH TO KNOWING ONESELF

Saturday: WHAT IS YOUR DNA TYPE?

Because of the Senior Center's annual craft fair, both sessions will be held at NorthStar College, 8370 East Via De Ventura, Building K-100, Scottsdale, Arizona. Phone: 480-429-0009.

NorthStar is easy to find. It is at the NW corner of Hayden and Via de Ventura. Turn left at the light and then take the first right. You will see upper and lower level parking. Choose lower level. Exit the parking area to your left, and you will see a building clearly marked NorthStar College of Astrological Studies. The college is on the first level.

On Friday night, Carolyn Ford will introduce us to the Human Design System. The Human Design System is a synthesis of the Kabbalah, the Chakra system, the I Ching, Astrology, Astronomy, and Bio-Physics. At the moment of birth we are imprinted with a genetic blueprint based on the neutrino stream from the planets. This results in a unique expression of individuality. Understanding this can be quite liberating, and something inside of us can deeply surrender, allowing our true inner essence to emerge.

Human Design Analysis reveals the mechanics of who we are by deciphering our genetic code. She will share some famous charts and illustrate how astrology is synthesized into this system. Everybody has a type, and in fact there are four types.

On Saturday, Carolyn will discuss the uniqueness of each type and its strategy in life. Each person will be provided with his or her personal design based on birth date, time and place. Rectifications are also available. The types are Manifestors (8 % of the population), Generators (70 %), Projectors (21%) and the rare Reflectors (only 1% of our population). The Reflector is a lunar-influenced being, and the rest of the population is solar based.

Knowing your type gives you a place of authority from which you can make reliable decisions. Carolyn will explore a few famous charts so that we may have a broader understanding of how this is applied. Which type are you? Each type has a story, and on Saturday you will find out yours.

Getting to Know Carolyn Ford

In 1997, Carolyn met Human Design. Carolyn is a generator and immediately began her own experiment with the strategy of waiting to respond, her vehicle for reliable decision-making. She has trained exclusively with Ra Uru Hu, the founder and recipient of The Human Design System, and has taken every course offered in the U.S. She began giving readings the same year. When you receive an analysis with Carolyn, you are met at a cellular level with her experience of truly living and knowing her design. This is the introduction necessary to begin your own process of self discovery.

Carolyn's first career was designing and manufacturing clothing for rock stars and entertainers in Hollywood. This where she achieved the success which allowed her to relax into a more self-aware lifestyle in Sedona. She is the founder and creator of Firedancer Vibrational Essences, a company with worldwide distribution. With the use of these essences, she has guided many people in their life path. Her skill as a counselor began years ago in the field of rebirthing, where she learned how to free the breath to free the soul. Her love of humanity and acute sensitivity allow her to assist others on the journey of awakening to who they are.

You can learn more about Carolyn at her website: www.yourhumandesign.com or by phoning her at 1-888-241-0060.

John Frawley's Real Astrology Presented on Friday, October 17, 2003

By Sarah Laurent, Newsletter Editor

This writeup is but a brief taste of the many ideas John discussed. To learn more, you can read his books, The Real Astrology and The Real Astrology Applied. John also teaches a correspondence course through his website, www.johnfrawley.com.

John began by saying that the best way to learn astrology is to learn the ideas behind it. Once your ideas are straight, the actual practice is common sense. He illustrated his point with a couple of easy examples. Several years ago he moved, and the family cat disappeared. So he cast a horary chart with the question “where is the missing cat?” A horary chart is cast for the time and place the question registers in the astrologer’s brain. Everything in the universe can be described by a house, and cats are in the 6th house. (Animals smaller than goats are in the 6th house; larger are in the 12th.) In this instance, Jupiter was in the 6th and it ruled the 6th. Therefore, the cat was in its old home and, since Jupiter is a great benefic, the cat was happy. Jupiter was also Rx and in Pisces. Retrograde: is the cat coming back? Yes. In Pisces: the cat was either wet or very comfortable. Since the cat was happy, it must not have been wet.

Traditional astrology also works well for weather forecasting. John’s friend had planned an outdoor barbecue and wanted to know if the weather would cooperate. He cast the chart not for the day of the party, but for the time and place the question was asked and comprehended. Since it was a party, you look at the 5th house. The sign on the cusp was Aries, as befits a fiery party, or barbecue. Planets are nouns, signs are adjectives. However, Mars was in Cancer, so it would be a wet barbecue. What sort of wet? The Moon was in Pisces: really wet. The Moon was conjunct Jupiter: a downpour. As it happened, that day turned out to be the wettest day of the year.

What is astrology?

Astrology is the science of light. Light existed before the Sun and Moon were created. This is essential light: the light of the essences of things. Astrology works by communication of essential light.

This is a subtle, refined light that cannot be stopped. It communicates from essence to essence. It’s the reason you can’t stay inside and avoid your Saturn return; it will find you anyway.

In traditional optics, light emanates from the eye, strikes an object, and returns to the eye with the image of the object. The eyes are ruled by the Sun and Moon, which give light and don’t receive it. The eyes also give out light. If you don’t believe this, try staring at a sleeping cat and see how long it stays asleep.

The Sun is essence and the Moon is soul. The right eye of a man is ruled by the Sun and his left eye is ruled by the Moon. A woman’s left eye is ruled by the Sun and her right eye is ruled by the Moon. When a man and woman gaze into one another’s eyes, there’s a communication of essence to essence, soul to soul.

Light comes from essence (the Sun) and is reflected through the colors of the 6 traditional planets. Nothing exists in a pure state. Everything has the qualities of all 7 planets. For example, everything has Saturn (form), or we couldn’t perceive it. Likewise, everything has Jupiter (extension).

Tropical vs. sidereal

Images of the signs didn’t come first. The nature of the section of the zodiac came first. The image is in the sky to illustrate that symbolism. For example, the sign Aquarius is associated with reason. It’s the only place in the zodiac that has sweet water. All the water signs refer to salt water.

There is a 3-fold modality working in each of the 4 elements, which give us the 12 signs. The signs have nothing to do with the constellations and never did. The problem with sidereal astrology is that the constellations are very irregular. They don’t occupy neat little 30-degree sections of the sky; Leo takes up half the sky, for instance. The zodiac signs don’t have a physical manifestation. We’re dealing with essences.

How to learn astrology

If you want to learn astrology, you shouldn’t begin by reading astrology books. You’ll learn a lot more by reading Marcello Ficino’s Book of Love. Anything of value in the Renaissance can be directly attributed to Ficino. The book is a commentary on Plato's Symposium and never mentions astrology. It talks about love in all its forms, what to do with it, how to cure it. He describes the Part of Fortune without ever using the word.

Love is the child of plenty and poverty. It is derived from adding the Sun and Moon, minus the Ascendant. The Sun = plenty. The Moon = poverty; it is always hungry. The Ascendant is the point of incarnation. The Part of Fortune is what we truly love in the marrow of our bones—the pearl of great price.

Pope John Paul II Celebrates his 25th Anniversary

By Judy Collins, Education Director

It was a joyous day in October of 1978 when Karol Wojtyla, later to be called Pope John Paul II, was elected to lead the Catholic Church into the new century. The first Pole and the first non-Italian Pope in 456 years, Pope John Paul II is now 83 years old.

It is always best to start with the most accurately timed chart. In this case, the chart to be most relied on is the one generated when white smoke from inside the Vatican announced the election of the Pope. We also know the time of the Vatican City's Independence chart (Given to Pope Pius XI by Mussolini on 6/7/1929 at 11:00 AM). The chart I use for the Pope is the most commonly used birth time. The best way to delineate the current status of the Pope's reign is to form an opinion one chart at a time.

The solar arcs for Vatican City are set for the anniversary. This showed that Pluto had just made a square to Saturn; ruler of the 5th house (8th from the 10th), which indicates a change in the status of the office. The Pope is represented by Venus, ruler of the 10th. The solar arc nodes are square to the natal Venus, making this a year of possible death of the Pope. Everyone feels the death of the Pope is near, with his health being so fragile, but do all the charts support this?

The other solar arcs for the year are: SA Sun trine natal Saturn, SA Jupiter trine natal Uranus, SA Neptune inconjunct natal Uranus, and SA Pluto trine natal Jupiter (this follows the recent SA Pluto square to natal Saturn).

I will briefly discuss each aspect. The trine from SA Sun to Saturn is triggered by transiting Uranus opposing SA Sun. Uranus transiting the late degrees of Aquarius squares natal 10th and 4th houses, marking a change for the Vatican.

SA Jupiter trines natal Uranus. Recently, the Pope appointed 31 new Cardinals, who share his philosophy, ensuring the continuation of the direction he has set for the Church.

SA Neptune inconjunct Uranus. This aspect worries me. There is NO provision for replacing the Pope in the case of coma only for death. A law (Neptune, ruler of the 7th house - legal matters) may have to be issued if the Pope should fall into a coma or suffer a stroke. This aspect also could be about the legal matters recently brought against the church. Inconjuncts are adjustments to be made and illness or death. I had hoped the Pope would choose to resign, but recent news says he will not. The transiting nodes just transited the natal nodes, which are natively at a critical degree. The upcoming eclipse at 16 Taurus squares natal Mars and conjuncts natal Chiron. The 1 Sagittarius eclipse is conjunct the 4th house cusp. Both eclipses show change and endings.

SA Pluto trines natal Jupiter: Both of these rule the 4th house, putting the emphasis on the end of life. The 4th house also rules funerals. Notice that transiting Uranus is opposing the 4th cusp and natal Jupiter.

The chart for the election of the Pope, which is an absolutely accurate chart, shows more evidence of a change in the papacy. We can start with the upcoming eclipse at 16 Taurus, which falls on the ascendant. This eclipse also opposes natal Uranus, with the transiting nodes crossing the ascendant. This will trigger a change in the office.

The solar arcs are: SA Sun conjunct Mars, SA Mars inconjunct ascendant, SA Chiron inconjunct Mercury, SA Ascendant squares Saturn.

In this chart, the Pope is Saturn, ruler of the 10th house. Taking one aspect at a time: SA Sun, ruler of the 5th (death of the 10th), conjunct Mars, ruler of the legal 7th, shows again that some laws may have to be enacted if this Pope becomes incapacitated. If not this, then I would look for the Pope to make more firm statements against child abuse by priests.

The natal Sun in the 6th is weak, but now conjunct natal Mars in the 7th, highlights things from the past hidden (intercepted Aries in the 12th), being brought to light. SA Mars is inconjunct the ascendant, showing adjustments, illness or death, with the eclipse at 16 Taurus setting off events within the next few months. Chiron by solar arc has hit the election chart's ruler of the 2nd and 6th by inconjunct. His poor health and peace of mind have to be affecting the Pope. I looked at some of the pictures in my file on the Pope and wonder how his mind is struggling with the vibrant man he was only a few years ago. He doesn't even have the strength to finish most of his speeches. He truly is a figurehead only. Lastly, the SA Ascendant is square Saturn. Frustration may lead to the Pope resigning after all.

This chart for the Pope is the widely used one. I don't believe it is accurate and I wonder just how far off it is. The assassination attempts (5/13/1981 at 5:17 PM Vatican City and 5/12/1982 at Fatima, Portugal at 11:30 PM...yes...PM an attempt with a knife or bayonet by a man dressed as a priest) should be good to rectify his time of birth and his election to Pope. It must be noted that normally no one would have lived through those attempts on his life or his ill health. Modern medicine has extended the lives of mankind and this Pope's life for sure.

The Solar Arcs for his chart are: SA Moon sextile Mars, SA Mercury conjunct Neptune and trine Chiron, SA Venus inconjunct Uranus, SA North Node inconjunct Pluto and opposes MidHeaven, SA South Node inconjunct Uranus and conjunct MidHeaven.

The SA Moon sextile Mars shows his plans for more travel. The SA Mercury conjunct Neptune and trine Chiron shows his failing speech and mind. The ruler of his chart, Venus by SA, is inconjunct Uranus which rules his 4th in this chart, showing a major change in his life. This could be anything from an adjustment to a move, ill health and death. The 4th house is the end of life, and with transiting Uranus in this house squaring his natal Sun, shows death to me. The SA North Node inconjunct Pluto and opposes his MidHeaven and the SA South Node inconjunct his Uranus and conjunct his MidHeaven, showing the end of his career and life. Watch the transits and the eclipse on his South Node for tracking his future.

On a very personal note, I think often of this Pope. I guess it is because in August of 1980, we were visiting Italy and at the Vatican on a day the Pope was greeting visitors in the square. He rode in an open jeep with no protection. I was on the front, row, close enough to almost touch him. I tell you with all the truth I can that I felt his strong aura and saw the twinkle in his eyes. I feel truly honored to have seen him. His passing will bring sadness to this non-Catholic.

White Tiger Attacks Roy Horn

By Judy Collins, Education Director

On the evening of his birthday, Roy Horn faced death in the form of his loyal white tiger reacting in an unprecedented manner. There is speculation that a lady with "big hair" caught the tiger's fancy and she reached out to pet him under the chin, causing Roy to attempt to get the tiger’s attention by yanking on the leash. The tiger bit down softly on his arm, and Roy reacted by tapping him three times on the nose. At the same time, Roy lost his balance and fell, causing the tiger to grab him by the neck and pull him behind the curtain. The tiger’s teeth severed Roy’s vertebral artery, resulting in heavy loss of blood. I believe the chart shows that the throat was crushed, although there has been no mention of that in the news. Doctors were not successful in getting a breathing tube down his throat. During the two surgeries that followed, Roy had two strokes. He is communicating at this time by gestures and other nonverbal methods.

There are many different charts that can be done for this event. I have listed the data I have found online. The birth data and article on their lives appeared on AstroDatabank just after my Education lecture in October. Try your favorite method of astrology to see what you can find.

Siegfried – 6/13/1939 at 7:20 AM in Rosenheim, Germany

The chart of the attack has 24 Taurus rising, which is within orb of the fixed star Algol. That particular fixed star is one of the most malefic of all. Algol rules strangulation, suffocation, and decapitation. Roy’s wounds are certainly described by this star. The ruler of the chart is Venus at 22 Libra, in the 6th house of work, servants, and pets. Although the tiger is not a “small pet,” he was certainly treated as a pet in Roy’s home and performs as a “servant” in Roy’s work. The critical degrees on Pluto, which rules Roy and the Nodes, show the severity of the attack. The Sun in the 6th is never comfortable or strong and highlights the fact that the activity took place at work. Also, the Sun is exactly trine Neptune, showing confusion and misdirection of the action. Being in the 10th, it shows that this attack was a very public and newsworthy event.

Other interesting aspects in the charts are the following: Roy’s Mars is conjunct the attack’s Venus, showing that by his actions (Mars) the tiger (Venus-Ruler of the chart) reacted as trained. Siegfried’s North Node is conjunct Roy’s Venus, showing their karmic relationship. Both Roy and Siegfried have their Moons in late Aries. There is a lot more that can be learned if you do a tri-wheel of the attack with Siegfried and Roy, and also the progressed charts of the two men. Whether the act will stay together depends on Roy’s recovery, as the two men have pledged that the show will not continue without both of them.
